Questions 9 – 15 are based on the following passage

Alternative acne treatment

Apply a drop of tea-tree oil to blemishes three times a day to discourage infection and speed up healing. Research 9 found that 5 percent tea-tree oil is as effective against acne as a 5 percent benzoyl peroxide solution.

Apply vinegar or lemon juice 10 pimples using a cotton wool ball. The acids present in lemon juice and all vinegars can help to flush out pores. Toothpaste 11 on an outbreak is also reputed to work well - try applying it before you go to bed.

A folk remedy for 12 pimples is to use a mixture of spice and honey. Mix 1 teaspoon of powdered nutmeg 13 1 teaspoon of honey and apply it to the pimple. Leave it on for 20 minutes, 14 rinse off. There's no scientific proof that this helps, but honey does have antiseptic properties.

Apply aloe vera. One 15 found that 90 percent of skin sores were completely healed with aloe vera within five days. Buy a product containing aloe vera, or squeeze the gel from the middle of a freshly cut leaf and apply it to the skin.

Questions 16-25

Read the following text and answer the questions that follow.

HAZE

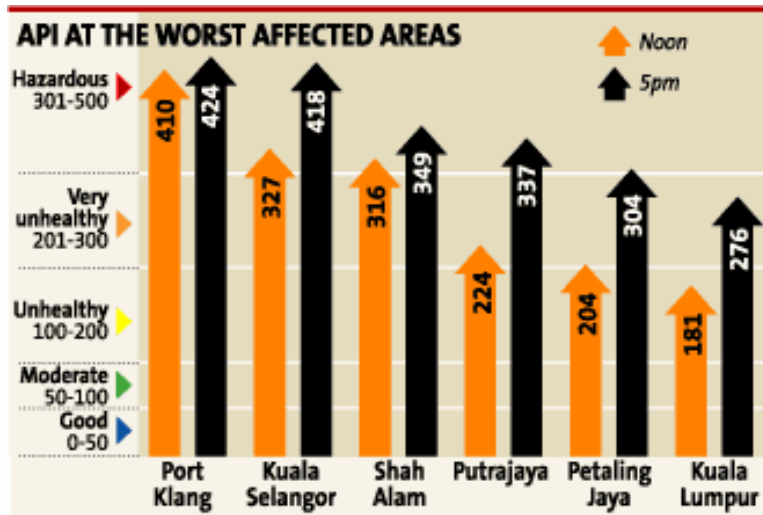

Haze is harmful smog that limits visibility. Haze can cause eye, nose and throat irritation. It also causes respiratory and heart conditions to worsen.

Here are some things we can do to protect ourselves:

- Shut the windows
- Check the Air Pollutant Index daily. Any number higher than 200 is very unhealthy.
- Use a N95 respirator when you go out and wear it correctly. Surgical masks do not form a proper seal on the face to prevent inhaling unfiltered air.
- Use of air-conditioner helps filter the air. Consider replacing your air-conditioner filters, that removes fine particles from the air.
- Have a bottle of eyedrops handy for those who suffer from eye irritation.
- Keep hydrated by drinking plenty of water.

What are the effects of haze?

Haze not only impacts visibility, but some haze-causing pollutants have been linked to serious health problems and environmental damage as well. Exposure to very small particles in the air can contribute to increased respiratory illness, decreased lung function, and even premature death.

[Time suggested : 50 minutes]

Questions 26 – 31 are based on the following passage.

- 1 The smell of coffee wafts through the air as Adam serves his first customers of the day. For them, this is just their morning cup of coffee, but for Adam this cup of coffee is a chance for a new beginning.
- 2 Adam has a soft voice but his voice had a certainty to it. He occasionally giggles as he tells his story and it's hard to imagine that this 18-year-old has served a two-year jail sentence. It was in a youth prison in Tanjung Batu where Adam met Diana Sasmita, who planted the seeds of his fresh start. 5
- 3 Diana started The Purple Flower in 2009 to ensure that youth serving jail terms have a safe place to talk and to express their feelings, after realising there were no counselling options available to them. Having gone through her own share of trouble as a teenager, she understood the circumstances and situations that could lead youths into a life of crime and its resulting consequences. 10
- 4 Diana expressed that everybody has a bad past. According to her, she herself had had a bad past, but her parents and friends supported her throughout her transition to become a better person. Everyone deserves a second chance. 15
- 5 Adam and his friends are less fortunate teenagers. They don't have parental affection and because of the bad influence in their environment, they got carried away and did some uneventful things that ended with a prison sentence.
- 6 The importance of family guidance and acceptance during and after a prison term is essential. The Purple Flower has been focusing on the juveniles that are placed in the prison. Many of the youths serve their whole sentence without seeing their parents even once, leading to psychological problems and depression. 20
- 7 Their struggles continue even after their release. Ex-offenders face discrimination when seeking employment and a lack of opportunities can drive some to turn back to crime, and back in jail. This situation is made worse when these youths are rejected by their families. 25
- 8 Realising that many of the youth are at a loss after their release, The Purple Flower started Wonder Coffee Wagon Programme. Adam and two other youths were their first students.
- 9 The first stage of the programme provides juveniles with professional barista training and an internship in a coffee shop. Partnering The Purple Flower is FineBrew, which shared their knowledge of everything related to coffee - from how different coffee beans taste, how to brew the perfect cup, to the ins and outs of managing a coffee business. 30
- 10 After a three-month internship, students move on to the programme's second stage, where they are provided with a cycle wagon to be used as a mobile coffee shop, allowing them to sell coffee at different events.
- 11 Through these new skills, Diana hopes to help ex-offenders become financially independent and able to stand on their own feet, with or without the support of their families. "The only hope that this programme has, is that these teenagers won't be confused anymore when they are freed, or about what they're going to do when they're out," she says. 35

32. Read the poem What Has Happened To Lulu by Charles Causley and answer the questions that follow.

What Has Happened to Lulu?

What has happened to Lulu , mother ?
What has happened to Lu?
There's nothing in her bed but an old rag-doll
And by its side a shoe.

Why is her window wide, mother,
The curtain flapping free,
And only a circle on the dusty shelf
Where her money-box used to be ?

Why do you turn your head, mother,
And why do the tear- drops fall?
And why do you crumple that note on the fire
And say it is nothing at all ?

I woke to voices late last night,
I heard an engine roar.
Why do you tell me the things I heard
Were a dream and nothing more ?

I heard somebody cry, mother,
In anger or in pain,
But now I ask you why, mother,
You say it was a gust of rain.

Why do you wander about as though
You don't know what to do ?
What has happened to Lulu, mother?
What has happened to Lulu?
