Read the text carefully in each question. Choose the best answer A, B or C. For each question, mark the correct answer A, B or C on your answer sheet.

Hey Mom,

I hope you're doing well! Lately, I've been feeling a bit disconnected, like we're both orbiting in our own digital worlds. I know you're always on your laptop, deep in your work, but I miss our offline moments together. It feels like we're plugged into everything except each other. I'd love to catch up, maybe step away from the screens and reconnect when you have a moment. Let's catch up soon.

Kramer

Be A Wise Shopper

By Amir Safwan

Do you consider yourself to be a wise shopper? In order to be labelled as a wise shopper, you must not be influenced by advertisements in the mass media such as the television, radio, newspapers and magazines.

Advertisements, in fact, can be very misleading and consumers are often tricked into buying products they don't even need.

Therefore, as a wise shopper, you should make a list of necessary items you wish to buy before going shopping. By doing so, you can discipline yourself to focus on buying the items that you need only.

- 4. From this text, we know that we should
- A. watch advertisements before we go shopping
- B. be mindful when deciding what to buy
- C. depend on mass media to help us be a wise shopper

Local Community Garden Flourishes Amidst Urban Development

Ipoh, July 15, 2024 – In the heart of downtown Ipoh, a community garden is thriving, providing fresh produce and a sense of community amidst the rapid urban development. Established two years ago by local residents, the garden has become a gathering place for families, schools, and gardening enthusiasts.

With the support of local businesses and volunteers, the garden has expanded to include a variety of fruits, vegetables, and flowers, all grown sustainably. "It's not just about growing food; it's about growing relationships," said garden coordinator, Winnie Tan.

- 7. Why is the Ipoh community garden important to the locals?
- A. To provide another option for fresh produce and strengthen relationships
- B. To serve as a commercial space for local businesses
- C. To host urban development meetings

Life as a Youtuber

By Nicola Prentis

Do weird, funny or interesting things happen to you a lot? Are you good at telling stories? Can you imagine hundreds of thousands of people wanting to hear about your life?

That's what life is like for YouTube star, Jessii Vee. Her videos of funny stories about herself, and 'Creepy Neighbourhood', have been watched over 150 million times, and subscribers to her channel grow every day. In just a month after I first found Jessii's YouTube channel, she had gained over 8,000 new subscribers. And a video that's only been on her channel for five days had already been watched 169,000 times.

With these kinds of numbers, you might think Jessii is an international star. But she's just a regular 23-year-old living in Ontario, Canada, with a talent for turning her life into her work, six days a week. 'My days change depending on if it's the beginning of the week or the end,' says Jessii. 'Typically, I'll spend the whole day Sunday thinking of ideas and researching for videos that I want to film that week. Then, come Monday, I'll wake up bright and early to start filming. Usually, a video will take just over an hour to film, and I try to film around five, so it takes up most of my day. Then, from Tuesday to Friday, I'm usually editing them.'

Being a YouTuber isn't just about making videos. Jessii also spends a few hours a week replying to messages from her subscribers. Sometimes she meets fans in person because, since passing 700,000 subscribers, she gets recognized when she goes out. 'It's so funny because I can meet subscribers anywhere and everywhere,' she says. 'The other day I went to buy coffee and a girl was serving me who almost dropped my coffee when she realized it was me. She left the coffee shop to meet me in the parking lot to take pictures. It always makes me happy to see them greet me with a huge smile.'

Online life isn't all wonderful and Jessii used to feel bad when people said negative things about her. 'Some people online are so quick to write hate comments,' she explains. Some people said that she has huge cheeks and really thin lips. It made her feel bad until she found strength inside herself. 'I realized that the things people were hating on were things about myself that I couldn't change. So, I decided to love those things and became more confident in myself. Now, she just laughs when she sees a hate comment. 'I know that they are from people who don't feel good about themselves and I know that I have way more supporters than haters.'

So, for anyone who wants to start a YouTube channel, Jessii has some advice. 'Be yourself. If you hate wearing make-up, don't wear any when you film! Don't change to impress people. They will fall in love with YOU! If you look back at my old videos, I seem uncomfortable because I'm not being myself. But when you look at the videos I make now, you can see that I'm completely myself. I'm crazy and weird, and I don't care what people think.'

There are some other things to think about before starting a YouTube channel. It's a good idea to think about privacy and safety. You don't need to show your face or real name and you shouldn't tell people where you live, for example. One of the most famous YouTubers, DanTDM, a 26-year-old English man, began his YouTube career playing 'Minecraft' and telling stories about the characters in the game, but he didn't show his face at first.

8

By starting their careers with a YouTube channel, some of the most famous YouTube stars have written books, been on TV, and toured the world doing live shows. DanTDM went on a tour of America, Australia, and the UK in 2017. Tickets sold out in minutes, with no advertising except Dan talking about the tour on YouTube. It's not surprising if you think that Dan's YouTube videos have been watched almost 11 billion times. Films and TV can't even begin to compare with numbers as high as this.

Part 5

Questions 33 to 40

We interviewed six teenagers about their views on the use of E-wallet. Read the text and answer the questions that follow.

E-wallet Usage in Malaysia

A – Shafiq, 26 years old

I like e-wallet because I can make payments from different accounts in one e-wallet rather than carrying multiple cards in my purse. It is a hassle to carry all the bank cards in the purse.

B - Citra, 23 years old

I prefer the rewards offered by e-wallet providers such as instant cashback, reward points or even daily or weekly challenges for bigger rewards. I can earn two percent of what I spend with gift cards and a free membership.

C - Omar, 34 years old

I can boost customer loyalty to products I sell as e-wallet offers personalised marketing and discount coupons. Customers want to use e-wallet for non-payment passes like loyalty cards, event ticket mobile payment and most importantly discount coupons.

D – Linda, 25 years old

I like e-wallet as it has cheaper transaction fees compared to credit cards. Normally, merchant discount rate is approximately 0.5 to 3 percent of every transaction made by customers. This helps to increase my profits and cut down on the cost of operations.

E - Sabiano, 20 years old

I appreciate using an e-wallet since it provides several apps and tools that can help me analyse my spending habits and hence improve my budgeting. When you use cash, it is more challenging to monitor your expenditure.

F - Yee Hao Ran, 19 years old

I favour e-wallet because transactions are often more secure and can be tracked more accurately as they are digitally encrypted. Thus, fraud is less likely to happen even if your phone is stolen.

Questions 33 to 36

Which paragraph (A-F) describes the views on e-wallet usage in Malaysia?

| Statements | Paragraph |
|---|-----------|
| 33. It offers safe financial transactions. | |
| 34. It gives rewards for spending. | |
| 35. It reveals your spending habit. | |
| 36. It reduces operational cost. | |

Questions 37 to 40

Using words from the text, complete the summary below. Choose no more than one word from the passage for each answer.

Benefits of E-Wallets

| It was reported that more than half of Malaysians now regularly use cashl | ess payments or |
|---|-------------------|
| known as e-wallets. It is safe to use e-wallets for online (37) | as they are |
| usually encrypted, and some providers even offer (38) from the | ne points that we |
